

DAILY ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR MARCH 22, 2024

Thanks to everyone who participated and showed their support for Whitnall Gives Back Week!

March has been Women's History Month, and we have one more recognition today:

Today, we take a moment to honor the Women of Whitnall. The success of this school community is a direct result of the immeasurable value of the women we call teachers, mentors, advisers, colleagues, coaches, mothers, grandmothers and leaders. No matter your role, your contributions are the foundation of our collective success, and we are profoundly grateful for the positive impact you make each day. As we look toward a much deserved Spring Break, let us take a moment to reflect on how we can actively support and uplift the women in our school community, whether through mentorship, advocacy, or simply expressing our gratitude and appreciation. Together, let us continue to honor the past, celebrate the present, and empower the future by recognizing and valuing the indispensable role of women in shaping our Whitnall world.
