

DAILY ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR SEPTEMBER 8, 2023

A fall play is back! Auditions for “Frankenstein”, will be held next week Wednesday, September 13, 3:00-7:00pm, in the auditorium. Students interested in auditioning for “Frankenstein” will read from the play or you can prepare a monologue. Sign up for a time slot outside the auditorium.

Girls Softball - Girls who might be interested in playing softball next spring should attend an informational meeting TODAY (September 8) at 3:00pm in the multipurpose room.

The Boys Cross Country team competed in their home meet last night (September 7). The JV team was led by Brady Goeb who finished 3rd, leading the JV team to a 3rd place finish. The varsity team took 5th place and was led by AJ Zisky who finished 11th. Henry Gapinski, Isaac Fiedler, and Marko Krecak all finished in new personal bests. Darrien Jagiello also had a strong performance for the team. Nice job, guys!

The Girls Varsity team took third place overall in the meet on September 7 with Emily Teixeira individually placing second. Tess Grochowski had a lifetime personal 5K race record, and Michaela Czerwinski, Ella Scherrer, Jillian Steinmeyer, Olivia Van Hart, Eva Goeb, Eleesia Holmes, and Emily Teixeria had personal records for the season. For JV Amaya Holmes received an award for a top 10 finisher and also set a lifetime personal 5K race record. Kendall Halwas set a personal 5K race record and Elena Acevedo, Maryam Nazer and Abby Zysk set personal records. This was a great race for the whole team!!

Baseball - Students interested in playing baseball this spring should attend an informational meeting on Tuesday, September 12, at 2:50pm in the multipurpose room. If you are unable to attend, contact Coach Fischer.
