

Thursday, December 20, 2007

AFS members, your t-shirt orders are due to Hannah or Mrs. Brand tomorrow. The cost is $13.00. All Model UN members need to see Mr. VanBuren before leaving school tomorrow. Mock trial members need to see Mr. VanBuren today and mock trial attorneys will meet after school today.

Tomorrow is the deadline for returning your talent show applications.

Seniors interested in pursuing a career in the construction industry, the Fox Valley Technical College and Fabco Equipment are offering credits that can be applied toward an associate of applied science degree. Stop in guidance for details.

Reminder to all young men, you are required by law to register with Selective Service within 30 days of your 18th birthday. You can register easily on the internet or at the post office. Further details in guidance.

A reminder to seniors - if your parent plans on placing a senior ad in the yearbook, orders must be received tomorrow.

Beginning January 2nd backpacks, tote bags and jackets will not be permitted in any of the lunch lines in the cafeteria.

Juniors, Whitnall can nominate one junior student to compete for the Executive Women's International scholarship. Further details in guidance.

Close Window